

HOME OCCUPATIONS

Home Occupations shall include the use of the premises by a physician, dentist, lawyer, clergyman or other professional person for consolation or emergency treatment, but not for the general practice of such person's profession. A home occupation is additionally, any occupation or activity which, or for which:

- (1) Is carried on by a member of the immediate family residing on the premises.
- (2) No sign is used, other than a nameplate not more than one square foot in area.
- (3) There is no display that indicates from the exterior that the building is being utilized, in part, for any purpose other than that of a dwelling.
- (4) There is no commodity sold upon the premises.
- (5) No person is employed, other than a member of the immediate family residing on the premises.
- (6) No mechanical equipment is used, except of a type that is similar in character to that normally used for purely domestic or household purposes.